IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

O.O.C.J.

SUMMONS FOR JUDGMENT NO. 50 OF 2005

IN

SUMMARY SUIT NO. 1952 OF 2004

Narendra V. Mehta .....Plffs.
vs.
Ramesh H. Shah .....Defnds.

O.A. Das for the plaintiffs.

Defendant present in person.

CORAM: S.U. KAMDAR, J.

DATE : 18th October, 2005.

P.C. :.

1. The defendant is present in person and he states that he is willing to pay the decreetal amount but needs some time. In that view of the matter decree is granted as prayed. In an event if the defendant makes payment of Rs.4 lacs in equal monthly instalments of Rs.50,000/- each commencing from 15.11.2005 and on 15th of each succeeding month, then in that event the decree to be marked satisfied.

2. In an event if the defendant makes any defaults or default in payment of the last instalment the plaintiff will be entitled to execute the decree. Suit disposed off accordingly. Refund of court fees as per rules.

3. In view of the disposal of the suit, Summons for Judgment does not survive and the same is dismissed as infructious.

****